

Sandy Antonini, B.A., J.D., CRA

POSITION Residential fee appraiser with Brunsdon Lawrek & Associates Ltd., formerly Brunsdon Junor Johnson Appraisals Ltd., an independent real estate appraisal firm, starting August, 2012

QUALIFICATIONS Sandy received her Appraisal Institute of Canada, Canadian Residential Appraiser (CRA) designation, August 2012 after completing required course work and a 15 month applied experience program.

Sandy received her B.A. ('80) and J.D. ('81) from the University of Saskatchewan. Sandy articulated with the Saskatoon McKercher law firm and was a legal research officer with the Saskatchewan Law Reform Commission in the early 1980's.

EXPERIENCE Sandy joined the Brunsdon firm in June of 2010 working as a commercial researcher and as an AIC Candidate Member under the supervision of Mr. Don Junor, CRA. Sandy has experience in appraising condominium units, single unit dwellings, duplexes, acreages and small town dwellings.

In 2015 Sandy completed (CPD) 103 Agricultural Valuation, UBC – Sauder School of Business Continuing Professional Development.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT Public member on Saskatchewan Professional Teachers Regulatory Board Discipline Committee

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS Appraisal Institute of Canada: Canadian Residential Appraisers (CRA)
Certificate #4360

Saskatchewan Association of the Appraisal Institute of Canada

- Board of Directors – Member at Large (2013 – 2016)

Law Society of Saskatchewan

- Member (1982 – 1986)
- Inactive Member (1986 – present)