

Amanda Conley, B.A

POSITION

Research Coordinator in the firm Brunsdon Lawrek & Associates, an independent real estate appraisal firm.

QUALIFICATIONS

Amanda commenced her real estate career in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan in 2014. She joined Brunsdon Junor Johnson Appraisals in May of 2014, as an administrative assistant in the Residential Department. She became the commercial division researcher in July 2015.

Amanda is currently enrolled in classes working toward the Accredited Appraiser Canadian Institute (AACI, P.App) designation.

Amanda was granted a Bachelor of Arts with Honours from the University of Regina in 2005. She is currently enrolled in the Post-Graduate Certificate in Real Property Valuation program from the University of British Columbia.

EXPERIENCE

Amanda has many years of management experience in retail and office environments. Prior to her position with Brunsdon Lawrek & Associates, she worked in the health care industry in areas of clinic administration and office management.

Amanda is currently undertaking the educational requirements to attain an AACI designation.

Her current position as the research coordinator has allowed her to draw upon her extensive research and technical background to gain a better understanding of the commercial real estate market and general appraisal practices.
